European Affairs.

Our English files, received by the Prince Alfred on Sunday, are more than usually interesting to the general reader. In the British Isles the subjects which appear to be uppermost in the public mind are entirely of a domestic character, the foreign relations of the Empire being tranquil to a degree that even the most ultra member of what is known as the peace party must admit to be very gratifying indeed. Nor is the social aspect of the Mother Country much less gratifying than her political relations with surrounding nations. The land is blessed with plenty, there is a full average demand for labor, and on the whole the price of labor has an upward tendency. The arraignment and conviction of a number of gas stokers on a charge of breach of contract and conspiracy to break it, and the sentence of several of the "ringleaders," as they are called, to twelve months' imprisonment each, has given rise to considerable comment in the leading journals, and opened up anew the vexed question as to the subsisting relations between employers and employed. Adverting to this subject the Times says: "The public are firmly and rightly convinced that if a man breaks a weekly contract he should be sent to prison—perhaps, as the Criminal Law Amendment Act says, in aggravated circumstances, for three months, or in other words, for as long a period as for theft or assault. But it is doubtful whether the public believe that if these men agree to break their contracts simultaneously they should be punished four times as severely; and there must, therefore, be some apprehension lest the sentences awarded at the Old Bailey may not defeat their ends." On the same subject the Examiner says: "We believe it a dangerous principle to apply the criminal law in the execution of contracts, and, which is far worse, to apply it to the men, and not to the masters. If the criminal law ought ever to be invoked, it should be against those spiteful and malicious dismissals of men from their employment which do so much to create a bad feeling between employers and employed." There is a strong feeling of public sympathy for the poor men, many of whom have large families dependent upon them for support, on account of the severe sentence recorded against them. The education question has also recently undergone a process of ventilation on the platform and through the press. It appears that Messrs Gladstone and Bruce have been having something to say on this subject before their respective constituents, and it would appear from their utterances that the present School Law has not given the greatest satisfaction, and that, as a matter of fact, England is still very far behind in educational matters compared with Germany and some other of the European nations. "Not the least insignificant passage in the Premier's speech," says the Daily Telegraph, "was that in which he referred to our magnificent endowments, equal in their amount to those on the whole continent of Europe taken together. The misuse of means set apart by our ancestors is one of the greatest reproaches we can bring against past generations. Had they properly applied to noble purposes the mighty common fund, we should at least have been long ago on a level with Scotland and Germany, and not unworthy of our med æval progenitors." The 20th day of December, 1872, was observed as a day of intercession for the Divine blessing on the efforts being put forth for the evangelization of the heathen under the auspices of the Society for the Propogation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. The prime mover in this very commendable effort was the Archbishop of Canterbury, and we are told there was "scarcely a parish throughout the length and breadth of the land in which the voice of supplication did not ascend on that day for the Divine blessing on missionary exertion." Apropos of this special effort on behalf of the heathen sitting in spiritual darkness in the isles of the Pacific and other distant lands, the London Times devotes a leading article to the subject of the increase of crime in the British metropolis, the first few sentences of which are as follows: "The winter assizes have brought to light some scenes of English life which are not pleasant reading at Christmas time, and which ought to cause some uncomfortable reflections to a church whose main attention has just been directed to the conversion of the heathen. A succession of murders and minor outrages has presented a picture of drunken brutality such a might be more fitly expected in some savage island in the far Pacific, where the natives had just tasted for the first time the terrible poison of drink." Political feeling still runs high in France, and although M. Thiers has so far succeeded in having pretty much his own way, there is nevertheless no telling what a day may bring forth. "The administration of France is," says the Daily Telegraph, "for the time, directed by the policy of the majority of the Assembly, not by that of the President; and if the present state of things continues, it is to the Assembly and not to M. Thiers that the administrative organization of France will look for instruction and for advancement. We need hardly say that many of the acts initiated by the new regime appear to us ill-advised. It is indeed difficult to avoid a suspicion that the President has purposely allowed the Right to have its own way in all questions of home administration, in order to show the country what sort of regime is likely to be established under Ministerial responsibility—that is, under the rule of the majority—instead of under his own personal government. But we fear that such a calculation is, if ever entertained, too profound to succeed." Victor Emanuel, of Italy, continues his work of suppression of religious orders at Rome, against which the Pope ineffectually continues to protest. The Italian people endorse the action of their sovereign, but we notice that some of the French journals, of the ultramontane school, loudly condemn the act as a sacrilegious wrong. The Paris Le Monde thus alludes to the subject: "The war waged by Italy against the Church, did not end with the occupation of Rome. Then became apparent the sincerity of that Italian government which said that it only demanded the right to sit at Rome, in order to be more in the centre of Italy, and to give more independence and honor to the Church. The spiritual power was to be intact. Even the temporal independence would be respected. It is well known what has occurred; no sooner was she established in the seat of Catholicity, than Italy turned her infernal activity to the ruin of the spiritual power itself. She endeavored to isolate the Pope, to imprison him, to insult him, to destroy faith in his people, to corrupt public morals, in a word, to ruin the entire Church."

FIRST PARLIAMENT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Second Session.

TUESDAY, February 11th, 1873.

The House met at 2 p. m. Hon. members all present.

QUARANTINE.

Mr. Duck moved, and it was carried:

That in the opinion of this House, the delay on the part of the Dominion Government in settling the just claims arising out of the late Quarantine transactions in British Columbia, is very much to be regretted.

That any omission on the part of Government to discharge their obligations with promtitude, is calculated to destroy that confidence between the Government and the country, which should be the peculiar characteristic of a good Government and a prosperous people.

That the aforesaid claims ought to be settled at the earliest possible period, and that it is the duty of this Government to apply at once to the Dominion authorities for the same.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

Mr. Cogan gave notice to move, is it the intention to carry out the provisions of the Weights and Measures Ordinance.

DYKING AND IRRIGATION.

Hon. Mr. Walkem was granted leave to introduce the Dyking and Irrigation Act. Read a first time, second reading to-morrow.

PUBLIC WORKS EXTENSION ACT.

Report of committee on above bill was adopted. Read a third time and passed.

BALLOT BILL.

Report on above bill was adopted. Read a third time and passed.

MESSAGES.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos was commanded to inform the House that His Excellency had taken into consideration the resolution of the Assembly on the beet root sugar question. He had been advised not to take action at present.

Message of the Governor was read transmitting correspondence between His Excellency and Secretary of State in accordance with resolution of Assembly of last session on the subject of the collection of poll tax on British subjects entering San Francisco by sea.

Also, message with copy of correspondence in resolution about the boundary line between this Province and Alaska. Ordered printed

MUNICIPAL BILL.

House in committee on bill to amend the Municipality Act, 1873, Mr. Todd in the chair.

Mr. Semlin moved to allow females to vote.

Hon. Mr. Walkem would move to insert "British subjects," and did so as a sort of test question.

Mr. Robson objected.

Hon. Mr. Walkem replied that no one was more eloquent than the hon. gentleman himself, (Mr. R.) a few days ago on the rights of British subjects. [Hear] He (Mr. W) was perfectly free from prejudice, but he would foster a nationality of our own, and he instanced the various States of America, none of which allowed a British subject to vote. He also remarked that Americans were perfectly satisfied with our laws, and he took occasion to eulogize their respect for law and order. The hon. gentleman clearly showed the advantages to be gained by the measure, and reminded the House of the large number of foreigners who became naturalized in the upper country last year.

Mr. McCreight hoped the amendment would not pass. He instanced the case of Victoria, the population of which was one-half foreigners, and they had rights which should be respected. There was no analogy between Municipalities and the Legislature of the Province. By the adoption of this measure the House would be disfranchising one-half of the population of the city, and this was only one instance in point. They were not in Canada, which was referred to, and for that reason they must legislate for the interests of the Province.

Hon. Mr. Walkem quoted from the Imperial Alien Act to the effect that foreigners are not protected in holding real property, and the act of any colonial legislature proposing to give such right is subject to be disallowed.

Hon. gentlemen seemed rather startled, and looked at the statute quoted.

Mr. Holbrook opposed the amendment.

Mr. Smith agreed with the latter gentleman who had just made a very eloquent speech He (Mr. Smith) wanted to see the rights of the Spilmacheen country extended to.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos believed it to be the correct principle, that of confining to the people of their own country, the right of franchise, and he quoted Great Britain, United States, France, &c., in which such principle existed; it was their duty to create a nationality. But while he favored this he was not inclined to go the length of opposing the views of the senior member for Victoria City. He differed with his friend the hon Attorney General, and didn't think the bill as it stood would do any harm. It would not be just i ous at the present time to suddenly disfranchise people. Due notice at any rate, should be given them.

Hon. Mr. Beaven was glad of the amendment introduced in the bill by the senior member for the city. He held that owners of property, irrespective of nationality, should have the right of franchise in municipal matters.

Mr. McCreight replied to the remarks of the hon. Attorney General. He did not anticipate that any difficulty would arise from the statute quoted.

Mr. Robson was glad of the change of hon. members to liberal views, since last session.

Mr. Humphreys spoke against the amendment.

For the amendment—The mover, Messrs Semlin, Hunter, and one or two other hon members. Lost.

Mr. Semlin then urged his amendment to allow females to vote.

Mr. Robson said the proposition would have the effect to turn our municipal institutions into ridicule. He alluded to the Women's Rights Bill,—and was called to order. He referred to the petition. (Cries of bogus.)

Hon. Mr. Armstrong said there were names on the petition which were placed there fraudulently and corruptly. Men told him their names were on it without their sanction.

Mr. Robson was again alluding to the Women's Rights Bill, which passed the House by a large majority, and he was ordered by the chair to confine himself to the question before the House. He continued at length to oppose the amendment.

Mr. Barnston would allow the ladies to vote, and would meet an objection of Mr Robson, by passing a clause prohibiting Indian women and Chinese the use of the franchise.

Mr. Holbrook pictured the beauties of female franchise in Liverpool, but he did not believe in the measure proposed here; ladies were very well in their own way; well enough in their own place.

Mr. McCreight did not see why women holding property should not vote; but to get over a difficulty which might arise as to ownership of property, he would limit the right to unmarried women.

Hon. Mr. Walkem said they were passing laws to protect females, and he would not limit the right to any class of females. He would go further, and allow them to be City Councillors. (Laughter)

Mr. Smith would limit the right to vote to women between twenty and forty, and would debar old maids entirely. (Laughter)

Mr. Semlin supported the amendment, and he quoted precedent. In Ontario females had the right to vote in some matters. It was in no spirit of jest he moved the amendment. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. Booth warmly supported the amendment.

Hon. Mr. DeCosmos suggested a mean between extremes. In England, Italy, and other continental countries, the right to vote on some matters was allowed to females, within certain ages.

Hon. Mr. Beaven believed the principle to be correct to allow all owners of property the right to vote. He also took occasion to refer to the Women's Rights Bill, and the petition which contained the names of about seventy voters only. A more miserable affair he never saw, except perhaps the meeting of last night. (Hear, hear.)

Mr McCreight then moved to amend the first clause, by allowing a vote at Municipal elections, unmarried women, which embraces spinsters and widows, of twenty-one years of age and upwards. He also moved to prohibit them to sit as City Councillors.

Mr. Bunster favored full rights for the ladies

Mr. Smith opposed any and all amendments to allow females the right to vote. The measure would be inoperative, and would be injurious to society. He would like to know what class of women would go to the poll; no decent, right thinking woman would go.

Mr. Semlin would withdraw his amendment in favor of the amendment of Mr. McCreight

The latter passed by a vote of 10 to 10.

In favor—DeCosmos, Walkem, Beaven, Semlin, McCreight, Ash, Hunter, Smith, Robson, Barnston—10.

Against:—Armstrong; Mara, Humphreys, Duck, Bunster, Booth, Holbrook, Hughes, Cogan, Santlie—10.

The chairman decided the tie, by voting for the amendment.

The bill, which is one of considerable length, occupied the attention of the House some time, several amendments being made to the original wording of the Act, and at six o'clock the committee rose, reporting progress, and asking leave to sit again.

Granted.

SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES.

The hon Premier handed in the Supplementary Estimates for the consideration of the House, to be considered to-morrow in Committee of Supply. The details of same are elsewhere given.

The House adjourned till two, p.m., to-morrow—(Wednesday.)

Police Court.

[Before A. F. Pemberton, Esq.]

TUESDAY, Feb. 11, 1873.

Robert Bolton, given in charge to Inspector Bowden by Captain Scholl of the steamer Prince Alfred, charged with assaulting Samuel Joseph by striking him on the head with a dipper, was fined £5, or in default to suffer two months' imprisonment.

Samuel Joseph, of the steamer Prince Alfred, charged with assaulting Robert Bolton with a knife, was also fined £5, or in default two months' imprisonment.

Five sailors were applied for by the captain of the ship Seaforth, in order that they might return to their duty, according to an agreement which they had previously refused to recognize. Application granted, and the sailors were removed on board.

THE MAUDE, from Nanaimo and way ports arrived at 6 p. m, last evening, with the following passengers: Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Manley, Miss Munro, Miss Shaw, Messrs. Jenkins, Filmore, Ruchtel and two Chinamen. A mainmast and lower topsail yards for the Alnatia were brought down from Chemainus. The Shooting Star was loading, the King Philip would be ready yesterday noon for sea, and would be towed out by the Goliah which was awaiting her. Mr. Manager Bate reports the water nearly removed from the late cave. Nothing yet heard of the Wright; it is hoped the Otter, which was hourly expected at Nanaimo would bring intelligence of her. We are yet unable to say whether the Maude will resume her Nanaimo trips.

Imbued with the inspiriting influences of the season and believing that there is a "glorious summer" ahead of us A. B. GRAY has made arrangements to receive monthly consignments of all descriptions of Dry Goods. The Prince Alfred on her last trip brought the first of these shipments, comprising a very choice assortment of the newest dress materials, black silks, wool shirtings, shawls, etc, and such a variety of general goods as makes his stock complete in all departments. An inspection of the new goods is invited. Government str et 11th February, 1873. *

VOTES POLLED.—The total number of votes polled under the new Municipality Act, for the various candidates yesterday for municipal honors, was 2,230. The new Council will hold their first regular meeting on the 18th inst., when one of the seven will be elected chairman, who will act as Mayor. There were in all about 500 persons who registered votes, and from all we can learn, great liberality was extended towards those claiming to hold the privilege of voting, little distinction being made as to nationality, length of residence here, leasehold, etc.

SAILING POSTPONED.—The sailing of the steamer Prince Alfred was postponed from 6 p. m. yesterday, to 6 a. m. this morning. Her boilers were overhauled yesterday and tested by Captain Cooper of the Department of Marine and Fisheries (Dominion.) In addition to the passengers whose names appeared in our issue of yesterday, are Miss McMillan, D. Macmillan, C.P.R.S., and Lieut. Diggle, R.N.

FOR COMOX.—The steamer Sir James Douglas left the Hudson Bay Co.'s wharf yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, for Comox and the intermediate ports on the East Coast. She took up a few passengers, amongst them Mr. and Mrs. Evans; and the usual mails, with a small quantity of freight.

FOR BURRARD INLET.—The steamer Grappler left here at six p. m. yesterday, with the ship Lulu in tow, bound for Messrs. Moody, Deitz & Nelson's mill, where the Lulu will load lumber for China.

SHIPMENT OF TREASURE.—The following is the shipment of treasure per steamer Prince Alfred this morning: Wells, Fargo & Co., $11,344; Bank of B. N. A., $10,271 91. Total, $21,615 91.

FOR ENGLAND.—Lieut. Diggle, of the firm of Dunsmuir, Diggle & Co., is homeward bound per the steamer Prince Alfred. This gentleman will be back again in the course of three months.

The Municipal Election.

The election of Municipal Councillors for the city of Victoria, under the new state of affairs, took place yesterday. The contest was conducted with good spirit, and terminated apparently with satisfaction to the largest number of persons present at the close. The following are the votes polled:

Gowen	261
Taylor	243
Dalby	238
Drummond	235
Hayward	228
Robinson	227
Keast	212
McMillan	189
Forman	130
Mitchell	123
Kriemler	62
Walker	59
Allsop (withdrew.)

The Returning Officer, Mr. Elliott, declared the seven gentlemen first on the list, elected. The successful ones then came forward and returned thanks to the electors for the honor conferred upon them, and promised to do their duty faithfully. Messrs. McMillan and Forman, also returned thanks to the electors who voted for them. A vote of thanks to the Returning Officer, moved by Mayor Gowen, terminated the proceedings. We regret not having space for the remarks of each speaker, and to apologise to those one or two gentlemen who were "neglected" when on the hustings.

Supplementary Estimates.

The following was laid on the table of the House yesterday: Attorney General, in lieu of fees, $1,000; repairs to Lunatic Asylum, (incurred in 1872) $1,233 43; construction of gaol, Kamloops, $1,000; repairs to Court House, Lytton, $300; Esquimalt dock, engineer's salary, January, 1873, $161 66; water works, do. do., $161 66; Kootenay district, trails and explorations, $1,500; Metchosin district, roads, $500; Mechanics' institutes, Burrard Inlet, $250; compensation (as per agreement with late Government) to T. Bulkley, Esq., $2,500; medical officer, lunatic asylum, pay for October, November, December, 1872, $150; outstanding liabilities to Savings Bank depositors, $12,000. Total, $20,756 75.

THE responsible advisers of the Lieu. Governor of British Columbia are three in number—the Provincial Secretary, the Attorney General, and the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, receiving salaries. The Legislature is composed of a single House and consists of 25 members—12 for Vancouver Island, and 13 for the Mainland. The franchise is much like that of Nova Scotia. The voting is done by open poll. A system of unsectarian schools is in operation. The vote of the Assembly in aid of schools was $40,000 in 1872. The officials, if few, are well paid. The Attorney General gets $3500, and his clerk is allowed $1900 a year. The Provincial Secretary gets the same, $3500. The Chief Com. gets the same, $3500. The revenue from all sources is $330,000. There are five newspapers to keep things lively; three Banks and a Savings Bank to look after financial matters. Since 1858 over 21 millions of dollars worth of gold has been shipped.—Halifax Reporter.

"THE DOMINION AT THE WEST."—This is the title of a Government prize essay on British Columbia, its climate and resources, written by Mr. A. C. Anderson, and just published by the Government printer of British Columbia. It is a blue book of 154 pages, neatly printed. The work is very comprehensive, containing a vast amount of information respecting the climate, soil and resources of the "Pacific Province" which cannot fail to be of very great value to future settlers in Columbia and Vancouver Island. The book is highly creditable to the writer, the publisher and the enterprising Local Government by whom it has been issued.—Ottawa Citizen.

FOR THE SOUND.—The steamer North Pacific sailed at 10:30 yesterday morning, with mails, freight and passengers for Olympia and way ports on the Sound. She will return to-morrow, as usual.

Canadian Pacific Railroad.

[From the S. F. Bulletin.]

Our neighbors across the border appear to be having some trouble concerning their projected Pacific Railroad. When the Imperial Government undertook in consideration of the Dominion's acquiescence to the Washington treaty to guarantee a loan of £2,500,000 in aid of the construction of this road, the whole thing was, by some minds in Canada, regarded as accomplished. At present, however, the outlook for actually commencing the road is far from encouraging. When British Columbia gave its assent to the Canadian Federation one of their chief inducements held out and the stipulation expressly made was, that the Dominion Central Government should secure the construction of a railroad from the Pacific seaboard to connect with the existing railroad systems of Canada. The union between British Columbia and the Federation officially commenced on July 20, 1871, and the provisions were that the connecting railroad was to be commenced simultaneously at both ends within two years from that date, and the entire road to be completed by 1881

Surveys have been made along the whole route which were reported to be satisfactory, and the next business was to obtain a company to construct the road. At the last session of the Dominion Parliament, several bills relating to the road and its lateral branches were passed, the most important being the Canadian Pacific Railway Act. By this, it was provided that the road should be constructed by private enterprise, by an approved company, to whom should be awarded a subsidy of $30,000,000 and a land grant of 50,000,000 acres in alternate blocks of twenty miles, with a frontage to the road of from six to twelve miles. Two other points in connection with the Act were, first, that the Government was authorized to contract for the building of the road with one or more companies whose united capital amounted to $10,000,000, these being allowed to amalgamate within a specified time; and second, that should such companies fail to coalesce, the Government may grant a charter to an independent company.

Two companies for the construction of the road, one headed by Sir Hugh Allan, and the other by Hon. Mr. Macpherson, were accordingly incorporated, but as they have not amalgamated, the government has now to look elsewhere for the undertaking of the work. As the time is drawing to a close under the agreement with British Columbia when the road should be commenced, the government is becoming anxious about the matter, and it being a Cabinet question, on the success of its endeavors to fulfill the agreement with the Pacific Coast Province hange the fate of the ministry. It was supposed that British capital would come to the rescue, but the people at home have been so far shy of investing, Canadian railroads not being popular from the fact that the Grand Trunk line has not for some time paid any dividend. At present appearances therefore, it is likely to be some years before Vancouver becomes the great entrepot for Oriental trade which the Canadians had fondly hoped.

The British Columbia Government.

(Toronto Mail Jan. 14th.)

The British Columbia papers, just arrived, bring us further particulars than were received by telegraph of the defeat of the McCreight Ministry. * * * * * *

Responsible Government was unknown in British Columbia until that colony became a Province of the Confederation. It is satisfactory to know that the defeat of the administration carries with it no censure of the new form of Government.

Mr De Cosmos, on the resignation of the old Ministry, was sent for by Lieut. Governor Trutch, to form a new Government, and in a day or two a Gazette Extraordinary appeared with the following names: * * *

It may seem a little strange that the names of Messrs. Walkem and Beaven should be found in the list of those who voted to sustain the McCreight Government, and that they should both be in the new ministry established upon its ruins. The explanation is to be found in the fact that Party questions did not enter into the vote of confidence to the slightest extent. We have read the report of the debate, and we are unable to find in them a single word except such as relate to local improvements. The late Government seems to have fallen because of the unpopularity of its chief.

It will be remembered that when news of the fall of the McCreight Government was telegraphed to Ontario the chief Grit organ made loud protestations of the triumph of Opposition principles in British Columbia. Of all the local Governments only those of Quebec and Manitoba were left to say a friendly word or do a friendly thing for John Macdonald! Such was the burden of its song. We pointed out at the time how absurd was the organ's position; and we find our remarks borne out to the fullest by the personnel of the new ministry. Mr. DeCosmos is a member of the House of Commons—fortunately for British Columbia, Dual Representation not having been as yet at all events, abolished in that Province—and perhaps in that House the Premier of Canada has no warmer supporter than he, now the First Minister of British Columbia. As regards local matters, the change of ministry has but little political significance; as regards Dominion affairs, the change has resulted in placing at the head of the Pacific Government a gentleman who is, as compared with Mr McCreight, an enthusiast supporter of the Dominion Premier. Will the Grit journal revise its hasty and unfounded expression of opinion?

The British at San Juan.

[From the S. F. Bulletin of Feb. 5th.

It is astonishing with what complacency people accept the inevitable, and like Mark Tapley become jolly under what they had presumed, were to be the most adverse circumstances. Some of John Bull's fire-eaters, when the San Juan business was decided by Kaiser Wilhelm in favor of the United States, had a despondent vision of the desolation that was to ensue from Uncle Sam entering upon this small strip of his inheritance. Goldsmith's Deserted Village was not a circumstance to it. Those subjects of Queen Victoria who had domiciled on the island were to depart weeping, shedding tears of bitter anguish over their once smiling and peaceful homes. But a change has come o'er the spirit of their dream. These Britishers say that they find "Uncle Sam is not such a bad fellow after all," and a few days ago, between sixty and seventy of them went before the first United States held on the island since the settlement of the dispute, and took the initiatory step to become full-fledged citizens of the Republic. They even go further, and say that it is a matter of rejoicing that civil law and not martial law is now in the ascendant, as when there was the joint military occupation. It may be hoped that this quiet and contented aspect of affairs will assuage the grief what was manifested by certain English journals, when the arbitrator decided that the island of San Juan was within the boundary line of the United States, as agreed to by the treaty of 1846.

SELTZER WATER and the bitter mineral waters at Pullna, in Bohemia, also Wines and Liquors for sale at the Red House, Yates Street by J. P. Fiterre, Agent. The Bitter Mineral Waters of Pullna incontestably maintain the first rank amongst all the bitter mineral waters of this sort. There are hardly 70 years passed that one began to make use of them, hardly 40 years that the foreign countries know them, and yet they have already outwinged by far, on account of their excellent capital effects, other more weakly operating bitter mineral waters, so that they not only enjoy an excellent reputation in all the countries of Europe, but that also the rest of the parts of the world praise their excellent sanative virtue. According to the experience of the physicians and to the manner in which the medical establishments make use of them the infirmities which are most fit for the use of the bitter mineral waters of Pullna are. Inflammations, inflammable irritations, orgasms and congestions, catarrhs both of the organs of respiration and the apparatus of digestion, obstruction, worms; maladies of the liver and the gall-bladder, of the hemorrhoidal, vein, complaints of pregnancy, excessive corpulence, illness of children, the consequences of intermittent fever, in all cases when a moderately purging physic is profitable, and besides this for the use before and after other mineral water cures, and against disorder of the mind. The dose to be given is fixed: by the infirmity, the age, the strength of the patient, the intended purpose of the cure, and consists from a full wine-glass, till to a bottle every day. With children and persons sensible of them little doses are sufficient. The waters keep operative and unchanged for years. Administration of the bitter mineral waters of the community at Pullna near Brux in Bohemia. *

IN these dull times when various devices are resorted to in order to impart a little life to trade, THOS. WILSON & Co. will content themselves with announcing the arrival of some new things per Prince Alfred, consisting of:—Silks, Alpacas, Satteen-Surges, Challis, Delaines and other Dress Materials; also Collars, Ties, Bows, and a variety of other goods. T. W. & Co. leave all questions of prices, quality, fair-dealing, etc, to the judgment of those who favor them with their custom, and disputing any real advantages of new ways of doing business adhere to that successfully followed by them for the last 12 years. *

VALENTINE'S DAY.—Associated with it are sentiments thoroughly laved with real purity of purpose and meaning. Like everything sublime, the ridiculous is but the next step. We have a keen conception of both phases of the meaning, and have tried to adapt ourselves to this interesting occasion, by securing an assortment so varied that its effects will either surfeit the receiver with the profuseness of poetry and tinsel, or make both donor and receiver inseparable for life. We venture to caution those who send the comic ones to be merciful, and those who receive them to exercise forbearance.—T. N. HIBBEN & Co. *

NOTICE.—I take pleasure to inform Mr. E Watson's former customers, and particularly the Officers of the Fleet, that I have done all his Watch and Chronometer work for the past four years. LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

LARGE FIRE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—A fire broke out this evening, in Sages's brick warehouse, on Battery street, near Vallejo street, in which was stored 20,000 cases of coal oil. The warehouse was closed, and the origin of the fire is a mystery; the first intimation of it was a terrific explosion, which was followed by three or four others, blowing out some of the windows, and the roof. An alarm was sounded, and several engines were soon on the spot. Soon after the arrival of the first engine, an explosion occurred which drove the front wall out and threw the firemen clear across the street; fortunately, only one of them was hurt, and that one not seriously. A general alarm was then sounded, and in a few minutes ten steamers were playing on the fire, but with little effect, and the fire is still raging, the efforts of the firemen being almost wholly——

"The Mayor's Folly."

EDITOR STANDARD:—An item appeared in your paper on Tuesday morning under the above heading, which calls for a word of explanation from me, and I trust you will do me the justice to insert this letter. It is stated that "Mr. McMillan attacked the Governor yesterday" This is entirely incorrect—Mr. McMillan did no such thing. I never uttered a disrespectful word regarding the Governor, nor any member of the Executive Council. What I did say was very fairly reported in the STANDARD in which the item referred to appeared, and certainly there is nothing in that report which can fairly be construed into an attack upon the Governor I stated that the act of the Lieutenant Governor in disbanding the Municipal Council, and in setting aside the Municipal Acts of 1867 and 1869, was illegal. My opinion was based upon the judgement of the best legal authority to be had in the city, and I believe such to be the opinion of nearly every legal gentleman in town. I never for a moment imagined that the Governor or his Council were actuated by any improper motive in what they did in relation to that matter, but simply that it was an error of judgement. The statement that the Governor, under a responsible form of Government, "can do no wrong," in theory is quite correct, but practically it is not always so. I could name more than one Governor who has set his responsible Ministers at defiance and acted independently of them in the administration of public affairs. So can Governor Trutch, should he feel so disposed, and the only remedy his Ministers would have would be to resign their portfolios. I believe Governor Trutch to be too much of "a constitutional Governor" to attempt anything of the kind; but what others have done he could do, and hence the doctrine that "the Governor can do no wrong," is in point of fact a very great mistake. I have the highest possible opinion of our worthy Governor, and also of the gentlemen who compose his Executive Council, but I cannot say I consider either him or them infallible.

Women's Rights.

EDITOR STANDARD: The thanks of every advocate of human progress are due to Mr. James Fell, for his exposure of the species of fraud by which, it would appear, the promoters of the petition to the Governor against Mr. Beaven's Women's Rights Bill, have not been ashamed to back up their moral cowardice and stultification.

I confess that, from what I know of that gentleman, I was a little surprised to see Mr. Fell's name amongst the signatures, and am proportionately glad to read his disclaimer.

His analysis of the list of names is highly suggestive of the "bogus" (to use a vile Yankeeism) nature of the influence sought to be brought to bear on the object of placing the Lieutenant Governor in a position of antagonism to his Ministry.

To what dodge next will the panic-stricken resort, or by what next ingenious method will they discover fresh evidences of imbecility? I am, etc.,

That Public Meeting and the "Comet."

EDITOR STANDARD:—Will you be kind enough to correct a statement which appears in your report of the public meeting of last night, published in to-day's issue of your paper, to the effect that the editor of the Comet occupied a place on the platform with the speakers.

The editor of the Comet attended the meeting, but occupied a place as far from the platform as the length of the room would allow. He also wished to state that if the public meeting held last night in the Alhambra Hall is a fair sample of political gatherings in Victoria, he has had enough.

Cheap Cures for Great Diseases.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

OLD SORES AND OLD SKIN DISEASES.

The seeds of these disorders are effectually expelled by this penetrating Unguent, not only from the superficial parts, but from the internal tissues likewise. Any case, even if of 20 years standing, speedily yields to its influence.

BRONCHITIS, DIPTHERIA, SORE THROAT, ASTHMA &c.

Rheumatism, and erysipelas may be overcome by frequently fomenting the affected parts in warm water, drying, and immediately applying this soothing Ointment. The same procedure applies equally well for curing sore throat, diptherria bronchitis, asthma, tightness of the chest, and pain in the side, which instant treatment alone prevents degenerating into more serious maladies. The Ointment has the same derivative powers over chest complaints as a blister possesses, without causing pain or debility.

HEMORRHOIDS—PILES, AND ABSCESSES

Thousands suffer severely for years from these annoying complaints through false delicacy. Let such purchase a pot of Holloway's Ointment, read the directions which accompany it, act up on them to the letter, and they will, without difficulty, succeed in obliterating every vestige of these harrassing ailments.

ACCIDENTAL INJURIES, INFANTILE AILMENTS

In cuts, bruises, sprains, burns, and scalds, it will be found cooling, sedative and healing. The part effected should be fomented in warm water, dried gently, and the Ointment should be instantly applied. This purifying Ointment may be safely used in all eruptions, chafings and other cutaneous affections to which children are liable.

BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, OLD SORES AND ULCERS.

By rubbing the Ointment round the affected parts, it penetrates to the tissues beneath, and exercises a wonderful power on all the blood flowing to, and returning from, the diseased part. The inflammation diminishes, the pain becomes less intolerable, the matter thicker, and a cure is soon effected. In all long standing cases, Holloway's Pills will thoroughly expel all depraved humors from the body.

GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, STIFF JOINTS.

This class of complaint yields without difficulty to the cooling and anti-inflammatory properties of this famed Ointment. It should be well rubbed over the affected parts, after due fomentation with warm water. It acts by stimulating the absorbents to increased activity, restraining ulceration, and promoting a free and copious circulation in the parts affected, and hence speedily and effectually ensuring a cure.

GOUT, RHEUMATISM AND PARALYSIS.

Gout and Rheumatism arise from inflammation in the parts affected,—to effect a permanent cure, adopt a cooling diet, drink plenty of water, take six of these famous Pills night and morning, and rub the Ointment most effectually twice a day into the suffering parts, and a sure is certain. The paralytic patient should take about three Pills twice at week, and let the Ointment be well rubbed into the paralyzed limb which will in a very little time, be greatly benefited—indeed many cures have been affected by this treatment.

ERUPTION ON THE SKIN.

In this class of complaints, no matter the age, the sex, or the place, or under what name, the disease may be classified, it may be cured if this Ointment be well rubbed into the system, and Holloway's Pills taken night and morning to purify the blood.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Fistulas
Bad Breasts	Gout
Burns	Glandular Swellings
Bunions	Lumbago
Bite of Moschitoes and Sand-Flies.	Piles
Coco-bay	Rheumatism
Chiego-foot	Scalds
Chilblains	Sore Nipples
Chapped Hands	Sore-throats
Corns (Soft)	Skin-diseases
Cancers	Scurvy
Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore-heads
Elephantiasis	Tumors
	Ulcers

A FRIEND IN NEED.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

WONDERFUL CURE OF ASTHMA OF 18 YEARS STANDING

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Ferdinand Mc Devett Innkeeper & Grocer, Glenties, Co. Donegal, dated 4th March, 1861.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered from asthma for 18 years, accompanied with great difficulty of breathing, and severe cough with spitting of blood. I was also afflicted with Piles. At different times I was treated by most skilful physicians, and was at length pronounced by them to be beyond cure;—as a last resource, I was induced to use your Pills and Ointment, and in the short space of a fortnight could walk about, and am now perfectly cured, to the astonishment of all who knew me.

BLOOD TO THE HEAD WITH GIDDINESS.

Copy of a letter from Mrs. Mary Foster, Half Moon Street, Totness, dated March 16th 1861.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—For many years I suffered periodically headache, and giddiness in the head, to such a degree that at times I have scarcely been able to walk; after obtaining the best medical advice without effect, I tried your Pills and in less than a week I was completely cured. Mrs. Donald, Chemist, of Totness, can vouch for the truth of the above statement.

COMPLAINTS OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

The very mild and painless action of these invaluable Pills, recommends them to every household as a remedy for the early departures from health. Any mother, nurse, or young person guided by the direction which accompany each box of Holloway's Pills, has at once available means for checking disease, qualifying the blood, and expelling from the system all gross humors. They are, indeed, at all ages, the tried females friend.

DISORDERS OF THE KIDNEYS & OTHER INTERNAL ORGANS

Loss of appetite and flatulency are usually the forerunners of stomachic disease. These famous Pills exercise the most salutary power in all affections of the liver, and irregularities of the stomach and bowels; they restore a healthy function to every internal organ, overcome all obstructions, and cast out all impurities.

THE ACTION OF THE KIDNEYS & OTHER INTERNAL ORGANS.

The immediate loss of muscular strength and nervous energy is more particularly remarkable in renal than in most other diseases. Their deficient action for one day suffices to produce fever, hence the necessity for prompt and efficient treatment. Holloway's Pills have the great merit of restoring any suspended or diminished secretion, and of relieving any inflammation or congestion in the spleen, kidneys, or other subsidiary organs.

The tight, suffocating, anxious feeling caused by derangement of the heart, makes the sufferer look on present death as imminent. Holloway's Pills prove an efficient and ready remedy when the disturbed circulation depends on indigestion flatulency, or debilitated nervous vigor. Persons suffering from disturbance of the heart should take about six of these Pills two or three times a week, according to circumstances, to arrest the too active action of the heart.

WEAKNESS, LANGOUR AND DEBILITY.

These famous Pills will immediately remove all symptoms of debility, langour and weakness as they act upon the main springs of life, and thus save thousands from premature grave.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known to the world for the following diseases:—

Ague	Inflammation
Asthma	Jaundice
Bilious Complaints	Liver Complaints
Blotches on the Skin	Lumbago
Bowel Complaints	Piles
Colics	Rheumatism
Costipation of the Bowels	Retention of Urine
Consumption	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Debility	Sore Throats
Dropsy	Stone and Gravel
Dysentery	Secondary Symptoms
Erysipelas	Tic-Douloureux
Female Irregularities	Tumours
Fevers of all kinds	Ulcers
Fits	Venereal Affections
Gout	Worms of all kinds
Head-ache	Weakness, from whatever cause &c. &c.
Indigestion
